

Security Consulting and Resources Support

Linxx Global Solutions

Linxx Global Solutions, Inc. (Linxx), is a mid-sized employee owned (ESOP) company with contract support offices operating in 11 U.S locations across the United States. Since 2006, Linxx has offered a wide range of program management, educational, training, and security services to satisfied customers around the world. Linxx supports all branches of the Department of Defense (DoD); the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA); the Department of Homeland Security (DHS); the intelligence community; and other federal, state, and local agencies.

Security Services Support

Linxx provides comprehensive consulting, assessment, analysis, training, and direct security resources support for the DoD, NASA, DHS, DoS and many other federal agencies and corporations. We have extensive past performance successfully delivering security services associated with export control regulations (USML), U.S. Navy port force protection regulations, government research and development facilities, and a wide range of other security services and scenarios. Linxx employs a comprehensive client requirement process approach that allows us to quickly and accurately target key challenges and design practical risk mitigation strategies. Our services range from simple consultation to full turn-key security operational management.

Security Consulting and Resources Support

Security Consulting

Whether you are planning to establish a security program or have already deployed security assets, Linxx can assist you by providing exceptional security consultation services. We are experienced and understand how to work with clients discreetly to properly evaluate and improve security operations. Linxx can deliver short, medium, or long term consulting support as required or as determined by the circumstances being addressed. Our approach begins with a thorough interview and discovery phase where we ascertain the key issues and concerns of our client. Based on the evaluation, Linxx can assist by deploying a wide range of consulting, training, and resource solutions. Below are a few areas of focus:

- Security posture assessment
- Security threat and risk analysis
- Risk mitigation planning
- Security plan review
- Sustained security consultation
- Specialized planning (e.g., ITAR, DOD, DHS, etc.)
- Security systems install/upgrade project management

Security Resources

Linxx has superior past performance delivering professional security leadership and guard force staffing in the United States and around the world. We can provide turn-key services which include deployment of human resource security solutions and fully equipping and arming deployed personnel as required. Linxx personnel are held to a high standard in department and presentation. We believe our success in reducing risk (e.g., theft, work place violence, etc.) across all of our contracts is derived from the quality of leaders and guard personnel we hire. Linxx was founded by and is managed by former U.S. Special Operations professionals. We understand and are knowledgeable in a full range of threat mitigation, from non-lethal use of force up to approved federal, state, and local armed procedures. We can create, deploy, and manage special security teams for maritime escort, executive protection, harbor and coastal patrol, and client incident command team augmentation. Below are a few of our capabilities:

- Security leadership staffing
- Guard post and guard force staffing
- Special security teams (e.g., executive protection, harbor patrol, etc.)
- Special inventory control teams
- Security equipment, materials, and communications

Summary

Linxx is a well-run, lean company with an excellent past performance record. The value we deliver to our customers can be summed up in one word: commitment. We are dedicated to improving the security of America and her allies through insightful analysis, creative product development, and exceptional customer service. To that end, we employ a large number of former service men and women who leverage their considerable experience and knowledge to accurately address the challenges facing our U.S. Government and corporate customers. In addition to these talented veterans, Linxx employs intelligent, business-minded professionals who understand program management, risk mitigation, and quality assurance. Our service offerings are divided into two categories: Security Services and Training Services.
